

I feel that since the New Jersey version of the "Do Not Call" has been enacted the number of annoying telemarketing calls has decreased to almost 0. It has been wonderful not to them. I would hate to see the NJ Version weakened. Rather, I would prefer to see the Federal Version strengthened to match New Jersey's.

Respectfully,

Kenneth Michaels